Annual Staff

The subscription drive started on October 9, this year, with Blue and Gold teams competing. The Blue team was led by Jack Burson and the Gold team, by Joyce Morgan. 350 annuals were sold during the drive, with the winning Gold team selling 193. Mirian Maish, with eighty annuals credited to her, Joyce Morgan, with thirty-eight, and Betty McCammon, with twenty-five were individual winners.

After the goal had been reached, Miss Albertson announced the staff as follows: editor-in-chief, Mary Jane Grove; literary editor, Roseman Dearduff; senior editor, Madonna Jones; athletic editor, Bob Lillie; business manager, Kenneth Shannon; subscription managers, Miriam Maish and Imogene Macon; advertising managers, Bob Smith and Jack Burson; art editor, Kenneth Neff; class poet, Earl Welsh; calendar editor, Audrea Campbell; snapshot editor, Patty Ellison; joke editor, Donn Ely; activities editors, Betty McCammon and Joyce Morgan; typists, J'neane Mitchell, Irene Bennett, and Carl Rhoton.

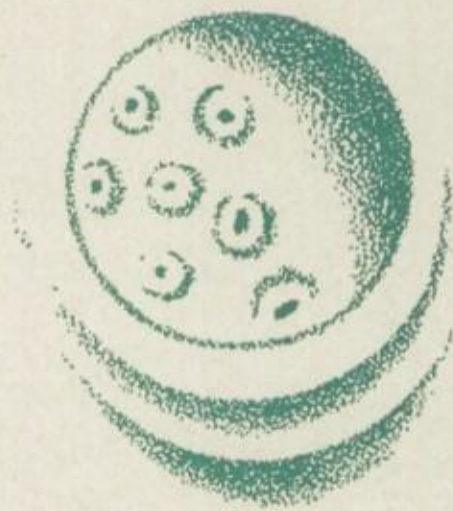

The staff members worked together very well and always managed to get their work in on time. Some night meetings were held to do the work requiring Miss Albertson's assistance, since few of the staff were free the same period she was free.

The Class of '47

To introduce the class of '47
Is a pleasure great to me.
To let you know their story,
And what the facts may be.

We have Mary Jane and Roseman
Oh, how their rings do shine!
I bet that their Sinatras
Own a diamond mine.

Merle Rogers is our basketball star;
He's always on the floor!
The ball is shot into the air,
And up goes 'Pelier's score.

Miriam is our crack salesman;
She sold them by the score;
She sold so many annuals
She couldn't sell any more!

You all do know Carl Rhoton
He is our ladies' man.
Risk would like to get
The "gals" that Carl can.

Audrea is our "Pin-up" girl,
And also Kathryn White.
You always hear them talking
About the "other night."

Neff, who's on the track team,
Is always on the run.
I wonder why he does it!
It must be lots of fun.

Marine and Howard are on the team;
They never lose the ball.
"Remember how they fought,"
In that game we played with Roll?

Then we have our "Ag." boys,
Earl Mahon and Lawrence Walker.
We also have that Parker boy,
Who's always quite a talker.

We mustn't forget Dwight Bell
For he's a Pacer, too.
If it hadn't been for his playing,
I don't know what we'd do.

Burson is our singer,
Whose notes are soft and sweet.
Oh, how the girls do swoon,
And how their hearts do beat!

We almost lost Bette Cole
To a "guy" at Hartford City;
But to lose anyone there,
Would be an awful pity.

Doris Miller and Doris Miles
Are our "sweater girls", you see.
They joined us as freshmen,
In the year of "43".

Joyce Morgan's and Marcia Sutton's
Grades are high, you know;
But when it comes to civics,
They're just a little slow.

McPherson is our "city slicker,"
And Bob Lillie is our miner.
Of course, you all know
Our gasoline boy, Jim Shiner.

Lee Barner is our gambler;
He always wants to bet.
Then we have dear Mitchell,
Who is our "teacher's pet".

Smith is our handyman.
To Morgan he's quite a joy.
But to all the senior girls
He's just another boy.

Raymond Rogers is our superman,
With muscles big and wide.
You ought to see the boys go,
When Raymond makes them slide.

Frances Danehy is our country girl.
Shannon is going to college, — I guess;
Some day he might be a teacher
In our school of M. H. S.

Irene Bennett lost "Jake"
In nineteen forty-three.
But she's doing all right now
As far as I can see.

McCammon is a skilled pianist,
Pat, a future movie star;
But all that Madonna ever does,
Is to sit in Roger's car.

Macon and Cunningham are "hicks,"
But they're smart just the same.
And how those two could yell
Whenever we won a game.

THE CLASS OF '47 (Continued)

We have Bill Herr and Carol;
"Dagwood and Blondie," to the class.
Then Comstock is our "champion" runner,
For he's very swift and fast.

Wentz is our Navy man
Who joined us just this year.
The reason that we won our games
Was the way that Richard cheered.

Donn Ely is our wonder man.
He's very handsome, too.
With hair so brown and muscles wide
And eyes of heavenly blue.

We also have our Clamme girls;
They're very studious, too.
There is hardly anything,
That those two "Clams" can't do.

We have two other "SENIORS",
Which we leave to the class behind.
They are Lillie and Hedley,
Our sponsors good and kind.

The author of these lines
Is just Earl Welch to you;
So with the facts I've given,
I'll bid you all, "Adieu."

Prophecy

Mary Jane Landis had just finished the dinner dishes and was drying her hands when the doorbell rang and Roseman Whybrew stuck her head in and said, "Yoo Hoo!"

"Come right in," said Mary Jane. "It's just time for the Golden Hour of Music on the television set."

"Isn't that the program that features Jack Burson as the singing star?" asked Roseman.

"Yes, it is," replied Mary Jane, as she turned on the set.

"Why, there he is now. He still looks the same, doesn't he?" exclaimed Roseman.

"Look! there's Relda and Evelyn Clamme playing their guitars. They certainly have gone a long way since high school days," said Mary Jane.

"There's Joyce Morgan and her trombone, too," replied Roseman.

"Seeing Jack and the girls brings back memories," said Mary Jane. "By the way, what happened to Donn Ely?"

"He's a carpenter now and has just completed a house on State Road 3 for J. neane Bantz (Mitchell, you know)," answered Roseman.

"I ran into Kenneth Nefi the other day, and, as usual, he tried to sell me a new Ford. He told me that Betty McCammon and Irene Bennett are his new secretaries," said Mary Jane.

"Is that so?" exclaimed Roseman. "He has a hard time keeping secretaries. They say he is a regular slave-driver. I dropped in at Bob Smith's drug store yesterday, and he told me that he had hired Bob McPherson to wash his windows."

"Did you hear about Earl Mahon and Bob Parker's buying the B-Bar-B Saddle Club?" asked Mary Jane. "I guess Patty Ellison is their star performer."

PROPHECY (Continued)

Just then the doorbell rang, and Mary Jane rose to answer it. "Why, it's the milk man, Bob Risk," she remarked. "Come in, Bob. Roseman and I have been discussing our classmates. Maybe you can tell something about some of them."

"Well," said Bob, "I just heard that Bob Lillie is now managing the Zollner Pistons and that Merle Rogers is their waterboy. Charles Comstock is a linotype operator in Chicago. The other day, when I was in John Marine's barber shop, I heard that Dwight Bell has been elected mayor of Millgrove. Well, I must be going. I have to go down to Bill Herr's bakery and order a cake."

"Did you know that Lee Barner has been painting Lawrence Walker's stock farm?" asked Roseman.

"Goodness no," said Mary Jane. "I saw in the paper tonight that Raymond Rogers has replaced H. G. Morgan as superintendent of the school, and that Betty Cole is the new clerk."

"Yes, and Kenneth Shannon is a teacher, too, at Indiana University," replied Roseman. "Jim Shiner is a very successful undertaker, I hear."

"What is Audrea Campbell doing now?" asked Mary Jane.

"I guess she is pretty busy taking care of her little Foxes," replied Roseman.

"I hear Madonna Jones is making good as reporter for the Montpelier Herald," said Mary Jane. "Kathryn White is a strong leader of the W. C. T. U."

"Imogene Macon is president of the Ladies' Aid," said Roseman. "And from what I hear, Miriam Maish is very successful as dietician at the local clinic."

"Have you been in the new hat shop that Doris Miles, Jeanne Cunnington, and Frances Danehy opened last week?" asked Mary Jane.

"Yes, I was in yesterday. I saw Marcia Sutton, and she was telling me that she had been promoted to private secretary at the Chemical," replied Roseman. "Did you see in the paper that Doris Miller is giving a big dinner party?"

"Goodness, no. She is getting to be quite an entertainer. Look, it's time for the news. Let's listen," said Mary Jane, as she turned on the radio.

"Listen! That sounds like Earl Welch reporting the news. You know he was awarded the prize for the best news commentator of the year," said Roseman.

"It has been announced that Carl Rhoton will be the Olympic runner for the U. S.; Richard Wentz has been elected the new Speaker of the House; and Norman Howard and his assistant, Carol Howard, have discovered a new use for atomic energy. Those are the headlines, and in one minute, I'll give you the story behind the headlines," said reporter Welch.

"My goodness! all those people were our classmates," said Roseman.

"It doesn't seem possible, does it," said Mary Jane. "There's the phone; excuse me. It's for you Rosie. Mike says for you to get your coat on, and he'll be here for you in five minutes."

Operation Crossroads

PLANNING

This experiment took four years of the lives of those who signed up. There were fifty-eight of us, but two withdrew. This was made up partially by one new member. The first year's work was under the direction of Bob Lillie assisted by Bob Smith. The secretary-treasurer was Betty McCammon; the girl and boy department heads, Carol Howard and Donn Ely. Supervising the whole group were Miss Shadday and Mr. Craig. The work was hard, but we had our times of leisure; convocation and class parties.

PREPARATION

The second year was a little more work and less play. We were beginning to settle down to the task. There were fifty-five in the group with one new member. This year Mary Jane Grove headed the group with Relda Clamme as her assistant. The secretary-treasurer was Bob Smith, girl and boy advisers, Betty McCammon and Merle Rogers. We began under the supervision of Miss Morton and Mr. McBride, but when the latter resigned the second semester, his place was taken by Mr. Bohr. One of the highlights of the year was the treasure hunt, held at the High School Building, November 21, 1944, at the class party.

TESTING

The third year was a turning point. Only fifty members signed up, and of those, eight withdrew. Merle Rogers headed the group, with Bill Herr assisting. The secretary-treasurer was Betty McCammon; girl and boy advisers, Audrea Campbell and Dwight Bell. Miss Nelson and Mr. Shoemaker were supervisors. Many extra-curricular activities took place this year. We held a magazine subscription drive; chose our class rings; won the yell brick at the 4-Team Tourney pep session; presented the class play, "Stranger in the Night"; and gave the Junior-Senior banquet, the theme of which was a circus.

ACCOMPLISHMENT

This part of the experiment started with a group of forty-five members, two of whom were new, Almeda Morgan and J'neane Mitchell. The group was under the direction of Bob Smith. After one casualty, Almeda Morgan, Bob Lillie was appointed as able assistant to Bob to help him over the rough spots. To handle the finances was Bob Risk. To head the girls' and boys' dormitories were Relda Clamme and Bill Herr. Two members who did their work elsewhere but will share in the honors are George Richard Schrack and Milan Sills. To raise money for the experiment, which would partially decide our future, the group sponsored the "Black Hawk Valley Boys". Then for entertainment, no money, a play, "The Thanksgiving Prodigal", was given. The "Annual" drive was held during this time, by enthusiastic seniors. We reached our quota of 350 subscriptions and began work with a staff of nineteen members.

Excitement mounted as we neared the end of the year. And why not? Look at the important events: our class play, May 2; the Junior-Senior banquet and prom, May 16; baccalaureate exercises, May 18; honor day, May 19; commencement exercises, May 21; and finally, we became full-fledged members of the Alumni and were entertained at the Alumni banquet, May 23. Thus our training for the great experiment for living useful lives was completed, and we were ready to test the results of our Operation Crossroads.

"Stranger in the Night"

The Boulevard Hotel Book and Gift Shop, owned by Sylvia Lee (Betty McCammon) and Mable Crane (Patty Ellison) appears a most unlikely place for a mystery until Grant Terry (Kenneth Shannon) arrives at the hotel. Grant is a newspaper columnist from New York, who has overheard two men discussing an order of gift items which had just been shipped to the shop. One of the men had placed in a gift the name of a person to be murdered.

It is known by Sylvia's business manager, Rose Gordon (Mary Jane Grove) that Sylvia has written a popular book entitled "How to Capture the Man of Your Choice." Why did she keep this a secret?

The mystery of the gift shop rises when Nona Pollard (Joyce Morgan), an elevator operator, gives her bag to her boy friend, Eddie Beach (Jack Burson), a hotel bellhop, to keep in his room, with strict orders not to open it.

Marcella Bender (Madonna Jones) adds color to the story with her everlasting persistence to get her friends to take exercises. Mable tries to get everyone including Marcella Bender, to read the book, "How to Capture the Man of Your Choice." Mable carries out the rules of the book in attempting to capture a bashful young lawyer, Clifford Newkirk (Dwight Bell). Mable is disgusted when she discovers Clif is writing to another woman, Sandra King (Frances Danehy), who happens to be a lady wrestler.

Sam Fisk (Kenneth Neff), a mysterious acting detective, is a constant visitor at the shop. He roams about, looking for clues as to the victim to be murdered. Velda Stevens (Roseman Dearduff), secretary to a retired business executive, J. T. Rutledge (Bob Smith), also visits the shop.

Everyone thinks that he is to be the victim until the breath-taking finish, when Grant Terry captures Sam Fisk, the impostor, before his brutal murder of J. T. Rutledge.

"Ask The Professor"

Under the direction of Miss Carmen Purcell, the operetta was presented by the boys' and girls' glee clubs. The story takes place on the campus of a fashionable girls' school on Commencement Day. The usual crowd of relatives and friends is present to witness the crowning of the Queen and to join in the festivities that follow.

John Ainsworthy (Jack Burson), who comes to see his sister June (Joyce Morgan) graduate, meets Maryida (Betty McCammon), the sister of his room-mate at college, and is much attracted to both her and her friend, Emily Lee (Jeanice Cale), who is a student and assistant teacher in school.

Because Maryida's mother does laundry work for the girls in the school to help Red (Kenneth Shannon), her son, through college and to keep Maryida in night school, she does not want it known that Red belongs to Maryida and her, fearing it will hurt his standing in college. Red, who is helping all he can, thinks she is foolish and rebels, but to no purpose.

John has a discussion on heredity with Professor Breakeasy, (Fred Mock) and, to prove that heredity is all "bunk", as he has always believed, decides to send Maryida to the Girls' School and give her the same chance that girls from wealthier families enjoy. Maryida promises her brother Red that she will not accept the offer of charity from John. However, when she learns that John's old aunt is the one who makes the offer and that the Professor thinks she is a ignoramus, she forgets her promise to her brother and gracefully accepts John's offer before the whole school.

Act two takes place on the same campus on Commencement Day one year later. Maryida surprises everyone with her splendid work during the year. She has been crowned Queen, and everybody is waiting for the finishing event of the day, the Commencement Ball, when it is learned that John's aunt is not coming. Now, according to an old rule of the school, Maryida cannot attend the ball, as she has no chaperon. Maryida learns that instead of an aunt, June and John have paid her way through school. Miss Stone, the president, very angry, will not allow June to chaperon Maryida and recalls John and June's invitation to the ball. Maryida then leaves for home. Since Maryida cannot attend the ball, Polly (Wilma Reff) and Tommy (Roy Bell) plan to have a barn dance instead of going to the ball.

In the meantime Red and his mother, Mrs. O'Neal (Jeanne Burson) arrive. Tommy is sent after Maryida on his motorcycle, and she is brought back. When the Professor sees Mrs. O'Neal, he is overcome by her beauty.

Red has found a fine job and won a prize for an invention, so he pays Maryida's debt in full. Miss Stone forgives John and June, and everyone is happy.

Norman Howard, Jr.—"Shorty" has been with the team two years. He played center position on the squad. His extra height and his hook shots have been large factors in Shorty's success as a Pacer. A senior, he will be missed very much on next year's squad.

John Marine—"Meatball" has been a Pacer for four years. Johnnie is a guard, whose specialty is one-handed shots around the foul circle. Being a senior, he will be missed very much by next year's team.

Charles Cain—"Charlie" moved up from the second team this year. He has started at forward many times this season. He specializes in a one-handed shot while moving across the foul lane. Charlie is a sophomore and will play for the Blue and Gold next season.

Merle Rogers—"Merle" has been with the team one year. He played forward or center and could be counted on to come through with some points in every game. Merle is a senior and will not play next year.

Dwight Bell—"Dike" has been on the squad for two years. He played guard and could be counted on to come through in a tight place. As "Dike" is a senior, he will not be with the Pacers next season.

Mr. Shoemaker—"Merle" has coached the Pacers for two years. Although he has had trouble finding a winning combination this year, still, he is a good coach and a "swell" fellow. We hope he will be coaching the Pacers next year.

Donald White—"Donnie" has played two years with the Pacers. Being a clever little ball handler, he could always be depended on to work the ball to the larger boys and also to add some points from out on the floor and in the foul lane. Donnie is a junior and will be back with the Pacers next year.

Jack Pugh—"Stinkey" has been with team but one year. Although Jack played mostly on the second team, he could always be depended on to play his best when inserted into the first team game. Jack is a junior and will play with the Pacers next year.

Bill Hawk—"Bill", who plays both center and forward positions, is good on tip-ins and pivot shots. Bill is a junior and will be with the Pacers again next year.

Francis Hawk—"Jake", a guard, has played Pacer ball for two years. He is a clever ball handler, whose one-handed shots from around the foul circle have helped raise the score in many games. "Jake", a junior, will aid the squad in many victories next year.

Dessel Beavans—"George" moved in from Warren just after the Four-Team tourney. He holds down a forward position, and his fake shots have been very effective. Being a junior, we hope that Dessel will aid the Blue and Gold again next year.

Bob Lillie—"Chomp" has been student manager for three years. He has set an example in being efficient that future student managers would do well to follow. His cheerfulness at all times has won him the lasting friendship of all the players and officials with whom he came in contact. A senior, his dependability will cause him to be missed next year.
